

SPEAKER

Leon Glenister, a top-ranked education law barrister, is known for acting in complex and high-profile cases across the education sector, and co-authoring the leading 'Noddy No Nonsense' on special educational needs law, with expertise also extending into healthcare and planning.

SPEAKER

Siân McGibbon is a leading public and education law barrister, regularly handling judicial reviews for clients including the Secretary of State for Education, schools, universities, and families. She is recognised as an 'up and coming' junior and deputy editor of the journal Judicial Review.

JUDICIAL REVIEW IN EDUCATION CLAIMS: KEY AREAS AND PRACTICAL TIPS

Join Leon Glenister and Siân McGibbon of Landmark Chambers for an insightful seminar looking at key and topical areas of judicial review within education. The discussion will range from recent case law on exclusions; challenges to failures to secure special educational provision and mandatory orders; challenges to national policy; higher education challenges; challenges involving discrimination; and challenges to the use of behavioural sanctions. Along the way, there will be thoughts, tips and tricks for those both bringing and defending such claims.

Event Details:

Date: Thursday, 29 January 2026, 18:00

Venue: Landmark Chambers, 180 Fleet Street, London, EC4A 2HG.

The talk will be in-person only

For queries, please contact contact@educationlawassociation.com

To register for in person attendance, please fill in the form at <https://forms.gle/8wnVVuETFA6yMcc8>